Echoes From the Castle of Knowledge.

William Mann, Editor.

Frank Vincent was absent Monday forenoon. Charley Palmer was absent Monday forenoon.

Wesley Cavanagh was absent Tuesday forenoon.

Robbie Reid was absent last Wednesday afternoon.

Anna Brown and Mamie Pearce are at school again.

The Literary Society of the high room meets Tuesday night.

Carrie Evans and Mamie Schroder are new scholars in Prof. Black's room.

The ninth grade Arithmetic class is the largest in school having 33 pupils.

There are five more pupils belonging to Mr. Black's room than there are seats. For this reason Miss Darcy has five more pupils to keep out of mischief.

To School Officers and Teachers.

There is still quite a number of teachers in the county unemployed, there being one hundred ninety legally qualified and only one hundred sixty-five districts to supply so that there is really an excess instead of a deficiency as has heretofore been supposed.

Teachers seeking places should drop a line to the Commissioner. All school officers desiring to secure the services of efficient teachers will be placed in communication with the same by notifying R. B. Fairman, Com. Schools.

General News.

A Bay View reading circle has been organized in Capac.

A butter factory will not be established at Crosswell until spring.

Hovey & Muir, Port Huron lawyers, have opened an office in Capac.

Another death from scarlet fever at Imlay City, in the family of Clarence Deneen.

Marshal Kettler, of Marine City, claims that the lawyer J. J. Spinks is insane. Spinks' friends say he is not.

John Jordan has retired from the management of Somerville Springs and Walter J. Hopkins takes his place.

A number of Port Huron teachers are ill and it is claimed that the Smead system of sewerage causes the sickness.

Victor E. Haywood has purchased the grocery stock of G. M. Granger & Co., Port Huron, and has taken possession.

Burglars entered several houses and stores in Lexington one night last week and secured a supply of winter clothing.

Eighty-five tons of hay on the Lynn marsh was destroyed by fire on Sunday last. Most of the hay belonged to Chicago parties.

A couple came all the way from Germany to Port Huron last week and there visited the court house where they were married by Justice Gleason.

Irwin Mead, of near Imlay City, 35 years of age and unmarried, shot himself in the head last week and died in an hour. No cause assigned for the deed.

Lightning struck a barn of William Bannister, of near Uby, one day last week and destroyed the barn, stable granary with all contents, and two horses.

H. C. Palmer, of Romeo, while engaged in digging a ditch, was buried by a cave-in. He was finally extricated in an unconscious condition but not seriously injured.

Dr. C. M. Stockwell, Port Huron's oldest physician, has dissolved partnership with his son and will retire from active life. He will remove to Detroit and reside with another son.

Albert W. Jones, of Cass City, visiting at Bad Axe, cut his throat and stabbed himself in his stomach with a pocket knife. He died the next day. The cause seemed to be his ill health and that of his wife and child.

A Timely Suggestion.

To THE YALE EXPOSITOR:

I see the papers throughout the seventh district, where H. G. Snover has been holding meetings, speak very highly of him and he seems to be making friends wherever he goes, and with Democrats as well as Republicans. It is now ten years since the seventh congressional district was represented by a Republican in Congress and this is the redeeming year.

Now I trust that in every township in the district the leading Republicans will make an extra effort to get out a full vote on election day. By so doing we will be placed in the old line again. Let every man do his duty.

Respectfully yours, O. Granger. Memphis, Oct. 29, 1894.

Political Pointers.

Sanilac Republicans claim they are going to roll up the largest majority this fall that has been known in that county for twenty-five years.

ROBERT E. FRENCH, the Republican candidate for state senator from this district, made a splendid record during his first term. On all questions where the rights of the mechanic, artisan or laboring man were at issue, he stood out boldly for their interests. He should poll the workmen's vote, regardless of party lines.

Ripans Tabules: for sour stomach.

DAN RUNNELS SPEAKS.

A Manly Letter to Republican Electors.

William O'Connor, the democratic candidate for Register of Deeds, is flooding this county with circulars trying to arouse sympathy by stating that he is poor while I am rich, and insinuates that I did not use him fairly when he ran against me two years ago. Two years ago William O'Connor had several weeks to devote to his campaign. I had but a few days, having been placed on the ticket at the earnest solicitation of the County Committee but a few days before the election to fill the place of the regular nominee who declined to run. Having been placed on the ticket I labored earnestly for the election of the whole ticket, myself included, and was elected. I defy any man to state that I then or ever used any unfair means to secure the election of myself or any other man. I did not then and shall not now say one unkind word against Mr. O'Connor. I am not, however, a little surprised at the means he adopted to secure republican votes. He says: He is a poor man and I am rich and therefore he should be elected. Now, I know nothing of Mr. O'Connor's financial condition and I am entirely unable to see what that has to do with the coming election. Mr. O'Connor says I am rich. I am far from that but do not base any claim for support on my financial condition whether that condition is good or bad. If I had not spent a large portion of what I have earned in trying to assist my friends, my financial condition would have been far better than it is to-day. I have spent all the years of my life from boy-hood in this county. No poorer boy ever commenced life in this county than I was. Without friends, acquaintances, influence, money, trade or profession, a stranger in a strange place, single handed and alone I commenced the battle of life here in St. Clair County. I labored with my hands for every farthing I have in the world and continue to labor now every day of my life and expect to to the end of my life. I have been no drone in the hive. I have tried to be an honest, industrious, charitable, law-abiding citizen. I have held the office of Register of Deeds for the last two years. No man, friend or enemy, has found fault with the manner in which the business of the office has been conducted. I have, in accordance with party usage, been renominated by an overwhelming majority. I shall resort to no sympathy dodge or any unfair means to secure my election. I believe I am entitled to the support of the republican party and I base my claim for that support upon my record as an officer, a citizen and a republican. I am not ashamed of that record and invite criticism by all friends and enemies.

Republicans of St. Clair County, you have placed me in nomination and I confidently expect you to stand by me as faithfully as I have stood by the party at all times and under all circumstances in the past.

A Big Increase of Trade.

The past two weeks business in our Millinery department the largest since its opening. A large increase of City trade, hundreds of new customers from Yale, St. Clair, Marine City, Crosswell, Port Austin, in fact, from all over the country comes customers who have been told of our stylish Millinery that we sell at ordinary dry goods profits. Any lady who chances to read this and has a Fall or Winter Bonnet to buy will do well to call and look over our immense Millinery Patterns occupying the entire second floor of our new store. Its easy to find—almost opposite P. O., 519 Water Street, Port Huron.

$100.00 Reward.

I have 80 acres of land in my own name with a perfect title. No claims or encumbrances against it. The first man who will bring me an actual buyer I will give $100 when the sale is made and conveyance executed. I want a payment down of $200, $300, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, jack, queen, king, ace, keep on playing your card, but bring the buyer and get the reward. I hold an abstract of the land at my office. Six per cent interest on annual payments of $100 each will be asked. Gossips are requested to refrain asking questions, I wish to talk business and only to those who want the land or the $100 reward. Who are you? I am William Cowing.

Virginia Farms.

Tidewater, Virginia, is now the best place to go for a cheap home, either cleared or woodland. Good chance to make money. Any person desirous of looking up this particular location, located between the York and the James rivers and about 40 miles from Newport News, Southampton, Old Point Comfort and Norfolk, one of the finest harbors on the Atlantic coast, write or call on J. B. Francis, Box 77, Yale, Mich. 47tf

Every farmer knows the folly of robbing his lands of virtue and strength without restoring anything, but the same man may rob his nerve system of strength and vitality for years and then wonder why disease has fastened on him. To all such unthinking spendthrifts of nerve force Dr. Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer comes as a friend to build up and revitalize the impoverished nerves and restore health. Abundant nerve force insures perfect physical and mental health and Dr. Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer strengthens and makes nerve force. Sold by Grant Holden, Yale.
